The G. A. R. camp at San Diego got down to work Tuesday. The encampment will be prolonged until Monday.

The Fair at Lone opened Tuesday. The horse Comet jumped the track and fell on his jockey, Dick Wilson, seriously injuring him. The horse was also hurt.

AMERICA'S TESTIMONIAL TO FRANCE.

A Suggestion to Governor Stevenson.
As people are generally well aware, an effort is being made to raise funds for a subscription to present to France some fitting testimonial on behalf of the people of the United States.

So long as the great Bartholdi statue holds the torch of liberty up to the emigrant crossing the sea to the land of freedom, it is an outrage that some fitting testimonial is not given to France by America.

Yesterday the editor of the APPEAL received the following:
DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 2nd, 1890.

S. P. Davis,
Editor MORNING APPEAL,
Carson City, Nevada;

Dear Sir:
The committee has addressed the Governor of your State requesting a letter of approval and sympathy, but has received no reply.

If you will kindly try to secure a letter for us, either with or without the $1 subscription, we will consider it a special favor.

As you can see from the enclosed we have received letters from 26 of the different Governors, but wish to make the list complete, and will appreciate anything that you can do to assist.

It is possible that the Governor would receive kindly any form of a letter which you might suggest, and would sign it without delay. If so, it should be addressed to the chairman of the Committee, whose address is as follows:

Dr. Wm. Seward Webb,
Cor. 44 & Vanderbilt Ave.,
New York City.

Trusting that you will be able to grant this assistance, and to send an early and favorable report, we remain,

The Committee,
Per W. H. BREARLEY.

The editor of the APPEAL is not just now acting as the confidential advisor of the Governor of Nevada but it will not shirk a public duty on that account and respectfully suggests that his excellency wheel Nevada into line. We would suggest a letter something like the following:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CARSON CITY, Nevada.

DEAR SIR:

In common with all other citizens of America who love our country and value its civil and religious institutions, I recognize the great bond of sympathy existing between us and the great French Republic. In the hour of our greatest need—during our struggle for independence—France nobly espoused our cause and rendered us most efficient aid. Since that time we have ever counted her as our friend. Now, the similarity of our political status forms an additional bond of sympathy and love between us. I am therefore, very glad of an opportunity to express my hearty approval of the movement to send a fitting testimonial of her great service to us and our present friendly feelings to her.

Very Truly Yours,
C. C. STEVENSON,
Governor of Nevada.

The APPEAL will not stop at furnishing the letter, but if the Board of Capitol Commissioners will send its authorized agent around to the office during business hours, it will also contribute the necessary dollar.

MRS. POTTS' MISTAKE.

She Ought to Have Told of Her Marriage with Fawcett.

"If Mrs. Potts had told the truth about her relations with the murdered man it would have saved the necks of herself and husband," said Judge Reardon of the San Francisco Superior Court, after reading the Examiner's disclosures with regard to the illegal marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Potts, of Carlin, Nev., with Miles Fawcett.

Fawcett's dead body was found in their cellar, and they were hanged last June for murdering him.

"The circumstances all seemed to indicate that the murder was caused by mercenary motives, solely," added Judge Reardon, "and that was why the perpetrators of the crime were dealt with so harshly. If Mrs. Potts had shown that she had been pursued and harassed by Fawcett, as now seems to be the truth, there is not a jury in the world that would have found her guilty of murder in the first degree. His threats of prosecution must have driven her to desperation. Just one word of this at the trial would have been enough. It would have saved their lives."

It is the opinion of those intimately acquainted with the circumstances of the case that Potts went to his grave without knowing that his wife, while enjoying a vacation in San Francisco, got another husband through a marriage bureau and left him when the greater part of his money was gone.

Lake Tahoe Items.

TAHOE CITY, Aug. 5th, '90.

Prof. Howe and family and Mr. Doane and family, of Carson, are rusticating at Glenbrook.

Mrs. Edmunds and Miss McCoy of Virginia City, are stopping at the Bellevue.
